Dental Health Products, Inc. Continues Sales Expansion with Opening of Full-Service Branch in Houston, Texas

Dental Health Products, Inc. (DHPI), one of the nation's largest and leading dental supply, equipment, and practice solutions distributors, announces the opening of their 7th full-service branch. The 9,000 square foot facility is located at 310 Mason Creek Drive, Suite 100, Katy Texas 77450 and will service the Greater Houston market and the region.

"The opening of our newest branch further strengthens DHPI's position as an industry leader and ensures that our clients will continue to have expanded access to the industry's top dental supplies, equipment and technology solutions." Steve Desautel, DHPI's Vice President of Sales and Marketing further comments, "We are an independently owned, family business with a strong growth history and customer centric values. We will continue to grow by focusing on our core values and sourcing value opportunities to support our clients' growth objectives. All of this would not be possible without the hard work and dedication of our experienced team members. We are excited to welcome our Texas team to the DHPI family."

The Texas branch will support a local equipment showroom, small equipment and handpiece repair, continuing education learning center, and warehousing.

DHPI has been servicing the dental industry for nearly 30 years offering a full line of dental supplies, dental equipment, and dental solutions.
